POLICIES:

Full payment must accompany registration in advance of the first day of camp. This is a four-day camp with an optional field trip on day five. Attendance is necessary on the first day in order to attend days 2 through 5. There is no reduction in fee for attending fewer days. Registration ends when all twelve spaces in the camp are filled. Only paid participants are allowed in the camp, no visitors. The camp is not designed for parents to attend or volunteer. The museum reserves the right to cancel the camp if it does not meet minimal enrollment requirements. Refunds are given under the following conditions: (1) if the camp is cancelled or an enrollment is denied due to camp size limitation; (2) if a participant must cancel before the camp begins, a full refund is given only if notice is received at least 1 week in advance of the first day of camp. There will be no partial refunds and no credits. Refunds will not be given due to expulsion or suspension from the camp.

Preparation for Camp

This is an interactive, hands-on course held on the museum's grounds, weather permitting, in the galleries and lab, and a field trip to Hueco Tanks State Park. If weather prevents outdoor activities, alternative indoor activities will be held. Be prepared by wearing sun screen, sturdy shoes (no sandals), protective clothing, insect repellent, and a hat for the outdoor activities.

Each participant will be provided with a granola bar, apple, banana, and bottled water for snacks each day. If your child has any food allergies, especially nut allergies, please be sure your child knows they should only eat their own snacks and drink their own beverages.
